

The viewmatic curtain motor system and the touch light dimmer failed to market because my provisional patents expired and the big companies Eg PDL and Rufflette copied my said products then sold to profit Conclusion,had I have hade money to manufacture and sell,I would of succeded but lost because I did not have the funds required to mass produce and sell to profit,I lost around $5M,so lesson well learnt and respected